When he returns from his buffalo huntifies imperial Highness Alegis, Prince and Grand Duke, licutemant in the Russian navy and colonel in the Russian samy, has signified his intention of paying Memphis a visit and enjoying the ball to be given in his honor by our sittaens. This will necessitate dress suits. They can be had at W ggener's. Waggener is the most fashionable clother in the south west, and, at his elegant store, No. 1174 Man street, has a stock of doths, cassimeres an vestings that has never been surpassed in Memphis, either for quantity or quality which he is making up at prices that we predict will go far to secure him a return of the costom that assured him the precedence in hilling in all this section. Waggener is determined to please. He has organized to please and will please his customers. Every may who desires to be well dressed will call to Waggener and get him to make a suit. If will find himself so well suited that he will never think of going eisewhere to be suite Remember this, and that the number is $17 Main street, three doors from Monroe.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT. A fatal seeldent occurred over in Mound City, Arkansas, yesterday, by which a fair daughter of Memphis was brought to an untimely end. Miss Downs, daughter of A. D. Downs, of Chelses, was over at Mound City visiting, and happening out riding in a buggy, the horse took fright and ran away. Miss Downs was thrown from the vehicle with such violence that her neck was broken and she died instantly. The body was brought over on the ferry boat Laura at noon yesterday, and was conveyed out to the residence of he parents in Chelses.
